Preamble

The Planning and Development Department is pleased to release the fourth issue of the Makerere University Fact book. The fact book is an annual production that is available in soft and hard formats. The digital format can be accessed from the departmental website <http://pdd.mak.ac.ug>.

The production of the fact book is in line with the revised strategy of the Planning and Development Department, which is “to coordinate planning in the University and offer support to strategic and operational decision making through collection, analysis and interpretation of institutional and external source data”.

It is designed to provide current information about Makerere University in an academic /fiscal year. For our internal stakeholders within the University the fact book is designed as tool that will facilitate institutional research and our quest for evidence based decision making. The information is synthesized from the University’s databank notably Academic Records Information System (ARIS), Human Resource Information Systems, (HURIS), and Financial Management Information System, (FINIS). Other sources of data from which information has been processed include among others, the University Library, Estates Directorate and Directorate of Information and Communication Systems (DICTS).

The University fact book by nature is a dynamic source of information which evolves with both the internal and external data requests. As such, we continue to update and improve formats on an annual basis, based on the feedback from our stakeholders. It is thus our appeal that you give us feedback for continuous improvements that will enable us meet your information requirements.

Student Admissions

Makerere University has three admission channels to the undergraduate programmes: Direct Entry scheme, for students who have completed secondary school and sat the Uganda Advanced Certificate of Education with a maximum of two years preceding the year of admission; Diploma holders scheme, for students from other tertiary institutions seeking to obtain a university degree; and the Mature age entry scheme for students who have been out of the formal education system for not less than six years.

Undergraduate admission criteria however, falls under two different categories:

- i) Based on scholarship and sponsorship; this includes state/government sponsored students and private/fee paying students, the government sponsored category is further subdivided into- national merit, district quota, disabled and talented sports students. The category also includes students admitted under the Inter University Council for East Africa an exchange programme for Uganda and Tanzania University students;
- ii) Students are also categorized according to the study time schedule of the programmes: day, afternoon, evening and/or external/distance learning. Day/afternoon and Day/evening programmes are predominantly parallel programmes offering similar content and assessment. External/distance learning programmes are offered in distance education mode. This also has a provision for face to face sessions to provide interaction between staff and students each semester.

While the number of A' level applicants has doubled over the past ten years, the university has more or less maintained a constant intake figure. The reduction in percentage admissions to Makerere University is attributed to increasing number of public and private Universities in the country. This currently stands at 6 public Universities and over 29 private Universities¹.

The science based colleges are reasonably better off in terms of space student ratio, as compared to the humanities. The same applies to laboratory facilities. This compares with the National Council for Higher Education ideal ratios. Apart from CEDAT days students use the same space as evening students. External Students only require space during the face to face sessions.

Makerere University has a main library at the Main Campus with eight sections namely: Technical Services, Periodicals/Serials, Reference and Circulation (including the Law collection and IDA/Basic textbook Reserve collection), Africana Section, Information and Communication Technology (ICT), Microfilming and Digitisation, Book Bank and Bindery. There are branch libraries in each college and school.

College Libraries

There are Nine (9) College Libraries and one (1) School Library with a total area of over 2, 000 square metres. Seven (7) of the College Libraries are situated at the Main Campus, in the following Colleges: Business & Management Sciences; Computing & Information Sciences; Education & External Studies; Engineering, Design, Art & Technology; Humanities & Social Sciences; Natural Sciences; and Veterinary Medicine, Animal Resources & Bio-Security. The rest are located away from the Main Campus and serve the Colleges of Agriculture & Environmental Sciences at Kabanyolo; and College of Health Sciences at Albert Cook Medical Library at Mulago.

Library Collection

The library collection consists of over 600,000 monographs with an annual addition of about 2,500 print books and 100 electronic books excluding donations and exchange, over 12,000 titles of bound Serials/ Periodicals and an annual subscription of about 200 titles of print Serials/ Periodicals and over 27,000 titles of electronic journals. The Library has a Book Bank System introduced in 1990. It comprises of basic prescribed text books which are kept and accessed from the academic departments. Currently, the Book Bank collection has over 250,000 copies of books. The library serves as the National Reference Library and Legal Repository for all works published in Uganda including government publications. It also serves as the repository of the United Nations' and related bodies publications.
